

Can't Get There From Here by Todd Strasser

This is my all-time favorite book ever! It is about a homeless girl named Maybe. Maybe lives on the streets with a similar group of misfits like her, and one by one they keep dying or disappearing. A 14-year-old year old street urchin named Tears is in need of help getting off the street. Maybe and a librarian help her find her way home so she doesn't end up like the rest of them. It never says what Maybe will do.
